The Team Manager for the Club hereby accepts full responsibility for the player and his/her actions and his/her identity, and certifies that he/she has checked the player's boots, and also checked for any jewellery or other prohibited items (including medical aids). Full liability rests with the Team Manager until the umpires formerly add the player to the Team Sheet at half time or after the game. The Team Manager will present the player to the umpires, along with any necessary identification, to sign the team sheet at half-time or at the end of the game.

Any player who does not immediately present at either half-time or at the end of the game will be deemed to have played ineligibly.
